How to Grow Bulbs

Daffodils and Crocuses may be planted in the garden between the first of September and the middle of October, Tulips the latter part of October, but should not be delayed too long if best results are desired. Early-planted bulbs come up more evenly, earlier, and develop finer flowers than those put in later. Hyacinths may be planted any time from September to December.

When grown in beds, Hyacinth and Tulip bulbs should be planted at a uniform depth. The easiest way to do this is to remove all soil from the bed to the depth required, set Hyacinths 7 inches apart and Tulips 5 inches, and carefully replace the soil. Many people do not think this is worth while; they prefer to plant with a trowel or dibble. Where this practice is followed, great care should be taken to see that the base of the bulb is pressed firmly into the soil.

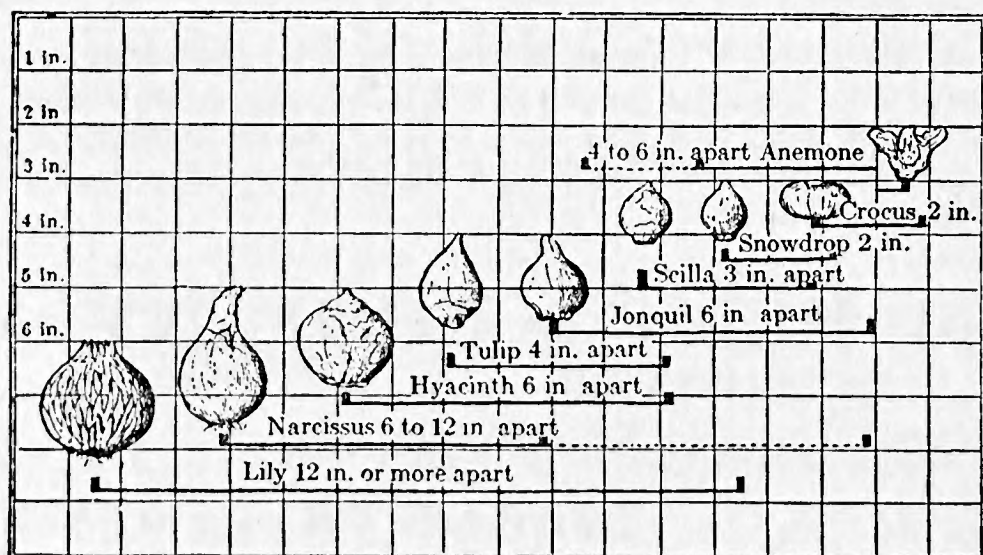

After the ground is frozen to a depth of 4 to 5 inches, it is well to put on a cover of straw or leaves. This should be removed rather early in the spring. Tulips and Hyacinths should be taken up each year. Let the foliage mature, either where they have flowered or in another location. After drying, the bulbs should be kept in a cool, dry place.

Daffodils may remain in the same place for three to four years at a time. The clumps may then be taken up and divided for replanting.

Crocuses give a delightful effect in early spring, but, like Narcissus, should not be planted where grass is kept clipped. They are extremely desirable in naturalistic plantings, but to obtain good effects it is essential that they be used in large quantities; plan to use several thousand in each 50-foot square of woodland or meadow.

Lilies demand good drainage. This may be secured by placing a quantity of sand below each bulb, or by mixing peat or humus with the soil. The tall varieties should be planted in a location where they receive protection from high winds; all of them enjoy partial shade.

CULTURE INDOORS.—Paper-White Narcissus and the Chinese Sacred Lilies are the easiest to grow. A bowl of pebbles and water is the "garden." Hyacinths likewise present little difficulty. Place each bulb in a glass so that the base barely touches the water, and leave them in a cool, dark place until the roots develop. They may then be brought into the light, and will produce just as fine flowers as if they were grown in pots or outdoors. Start the bulbs any time between September and January; for succession of bloom bring them into the light at intervals of several weeks.

AERICAN GARDENERS need not be bewildered about the possibilities of their 1941 gardens, since there are many kinds of bulbs now being grown in America. As you leaf through our catalogue this year, we suggest that you pay particular attention to the many outstanding varieties of Narcissus which we are listing. Few of our spring-flowering bulbs are a more permanent garden investment than are the Narcissus, since they multiply abundantly and continue to produce extraordinary flowers for many years.

We are very grateful for the fine patronage of our many friends and customers through the years. In order that we can give the best in horticultural knowledge and experience to our many patrons, we are always endeavoring to find new and better sources of plant material.

In these days, when new complications are developing in Europe with the passing of each hour, we cannot guarantee to deliver bulbs of Dutch, French, Bermuda and Japanese origin. Hence, all bulbs from these sources are offered at prices available at time of printing and are subject to our ability to procure.

Early Ordering. Your coöperation is invited. Placing orders early will facilitate delivery at proper time.

Rush Orders may be telegraphed or telephoned at our expense.

Prices of Bulbs, Seeds, Plants, and Supplies are subject to market and tariff changes.

Terms. Prices quoted are net. We prepay transportation on seeds in packets, ounces, or quarter-pounds, to any point in the United States. We also prepay transportation on special "Cash with Order Offers on Bulbs," to any point east of the Mississippi.

Upon delivery of goods to the carrier, ownership passes to the purchaser; when the carrier issues a receipt our responsibility ceases. Claims for damage should be made to the transportation agent at point of delivery.

Non-Warranty. William M. Hunt & Company, Inc., give no warranty, express or implied, as to description, quality, productiveness, or any other matter of any seeds, bulbs, or plants they send out, and they will not be in any way responsible for the crop. If the purchaser does not accept the goods on these terms, they are to be returned at once.

Narcissus (Daffodils)

The Narcissus family is indeed an important one in the early spring garden, and in recent years hybridizers have given thoughtful attention to the development of many new varieties. In fact, so numerous and so varied are the flower types that there are now eleven distinct classes and many of these are subdivided. By selecting the various types you can enjoy Narcissus for many weeks in your garden.

Perhaps the most useful of all of our spring-flowering bulbs for informal planting are the Narcissus. They fit well into the rock-garden or the shrub border, and they can be used in many corners that will later be completely shaded with foliage, because the blooms appear before most trees or shrubs are in full leaf. They are delightful along paths and walks in woodlands or along streamsides.

Narcissus are also important and exceedingly valuable because they are so long-lived. In short, when you buy Narcissus, you make a permanent investment. The bulbs increase rapidly from year to year and the flowers do not deteriorate as long as the plants are kept in a flourishing condition. It is only when bulbs become very much crowded that they fail to bloom satisfactorily. If such a condition should occur in your garden, merely dig the bulbs and reset them. You will be amazed at the rapidity with which they multiply.

Many varieties are useful for forcing in the greenhouse or in the window garden, in fact, many are pre-cooled especially for this purpose.

Now, more than ever, we should turn our attention to this great plant family since Narcissus are now produced in America in great quantities. We have endeavored to offer you in the following list a representative selection of the finest and most useful varieties for American gardens.

Broadcasting Bulbs in Open Spaces

Spring-flowering bulbs are ideal for naturalistic effects in open spaces. A lawn dotted with the dainty Crocus blooms is a lovely sight. At the edge of a woodland, Scillas, Enkianthus, or Grape Hyacinths invite you to linger and look. For open spaces along a little brook, beside a pool, or on the edge of a marsh, Daffodils greet the spring sunshine with a burst of beauty.

Our prices on bulbs for naturalizing are extremely reasonable, and give you an opportunity to plant large quantities of bulbs for permanent effect. Narcissus, Crocus, Scillas, Grape Hyacinths (Muscari), Snowdrops, Camassias, Chionodoxas, Erythroniums, Eranthus and others are entirely suited for naturalizing.

Pre-cooled Bulbs for Christmas Flowering

This stock is dug as usual, cured for two to three weeks, graded and then placed in a temperature of 50° Fahr. from six to eight weeks. Storage at this temperature makes normally late-flowering varieties early and early sorts much earlier and easier to force; in fact, they require only six to eight weeks from planting to full bloom. Pre-cooled Bulbs should be potted promptly on receipt and kept in a cool place for proper root-action. On or about November 25, sample pots or flats should be removed to greenhouse or frames to see if they are ready to grow buds and foliage.

Pre-cooled Tulips

Bulbs should be planted in pots or flats immediately upon arrival and buried in a shady, cool place with a covering of at least 6 inches of soil and 8 inches of straw or hay.

When the bulbs should be placed in the greenhouse depends on the variety. They must be brought in the greenhouse ten days earlier than regular bulbs of the same sort.

Pre-cooled Tulips make tall stems and should not be drawn up in the dark. Partial shading the first ten days is advisable.

The following sorts have proved very satisfactory and are strongly recommended.

Pre-cooled Darwin Tulips

Darwin Tulips

SELECTED TOP-SIZED BULBS ONLY

The Cream of the Standard Varieties and Recent Introductions

Darwin Tulips are increasing in popularity every season. Colors range from white to purplish black, including shades of crimson, violet, brown, rose, etc. Very effective for planting in shrubbery or in hardy plant borders. The flowers are large, deeply cupped, and are borne on lofty stems which are ideal for cutting and vase use. Gorgeous combinations of color can be made by planting them in broad masses or long, narrow borders. To avoid striking contrasts, use tones of bronze and pale violet with the lavenders—and soft pinks and lavenders, shades which merge into each other and do not clash as violently as the usual red and yellow. If striking effects are desired, try Bleu Aimable in front of City of Haarlem, a vivid, odd, French combination of blue and scarlet; or an even more effective combination of some pale yellow, like Moonlight (a Cottage Tulip), with a deep red-purple variety, Faust or Zulu. The new pale yellows are also good with dark mahogany-red varieties like King Harold. Brilliant reds like Pride of Haarlem and Farncombe Sanders are best used alone, or against an evergreen background. Dark pinks are good with light pinks and white varieties, like the Cottage Picotee.

Cottage or May-flowering Tulips

SELECTED TOP-SIZED BULBS ONLY

The largest blooms of any Tulips are found in this class, which contains many long-pointed and lily-shaped flowers. All colors imaginable are available among them, except good blues. Many have long stems and some are shorter and some gracefully drooping so that they are excellent in front of taller sorts. For cut-flowers or garden decoration. The new varieties included represent a great advance in this class.

Single Early Tulips

TOP-SIZED BULBS ONLY

The old-fashioned Single Early Tulips are unsurpassed for bedding and, with few exceptions, excellent for forcing. Gardeners are learning that the wholesale discarding of this class, which took place a few years back, was a mistake. The monotony of the solid beds of red and yellow, and the acres of Keizerskroon which used to make our parks and gardens offensive, will never return, but such lovely things as De Wet, Lady Boreel, Pink Beauty, Sunburst, and Rose Luisante are indispensable in any well-planned garden. Blooming with the narcissus, at a time when bright color is sorely needed, they are treasures indeed. They are gone by the time the space is needed for annuals and bedding plants, so that there is no blank interval in the effective use of the ground.

Netherlands Tulip Fields Almost Untouched by the War

Just as this Catalogue goes to press (June 1) we hear that the Netherlands' Tulip fields were mostly spared the ravages of war.

Multiflora Hyacinths

Their gay colors, grace, fragrance, and easy culture make these Heralds of Spring promising subjects for indoor gardening. Plant any time after October 15, in pots or pottery 5 inches in diameter, tops of bulbs level with soil or bulb fibre 1/2 inch below rim of container; store in cool dark place for 10 weeks; water occasionally. When the sprouts are up 2 inches, take pots into subdued light in warm room for two weeks and blossoming follows automatically.

Multiflora Hyacinths are hardy. Planted outdoors in September to November, each bulb will produce a fragrant clump of colorful blossoms in the spring. Left undisturbed in a good location they will bring their message of joy to your garden for several years.

Early Roman Hyacinths

New-crop bulbs will be ready in September, when they may be planted in pots or pans of a compost containing two-thirds fibrous loam and one-third sand. They may also be placed in the more artistic ornamental bowls now available in any china store, using our prepared Bulb Fibre as a filler, which only needs to be kept continually moist, requires no additional fertilizer, and in which the bulbs thrive and bloom luxuriantly. Bulbs planted in September bloom in December.

Freeseias

New Tecolote Hybrids

The most striking characteristics of this new strain are the immense size of the flowers and the unusual strength and vigor of the plants. The flowers are wide open, often measuring more than 2½ inches in diameter, and are delightfully scented. The stiff, heavy stems are from 24 to 30 inches in length, with many side branches. For this season we are offering Tecolote Hybrids in a mixture of 25 magnificent shades, and a limited quantity of each in separate colors.

Hardy Garden Lilies {New Crop}

FOR FALL PLANTING

All Lilies do not like the same conditions. The one universal requirement for all is absolutely perfect drainage. The loose, scaly bulbs which Lilies produce are susceptible to rot in wet soil, and it will pay to go to some pains to be sure that the ground for them is properly drained. When Lilies are well established in the garden, it is well to feed them with a top-dressing of manure after the tops have died down in the autumn. It is better to omit manure from the Lily-bed before planting.

Candidum (Madonna or Annunciation Lily). The bulbs we offer are the true, hardy, Northern French-grown; arriving here in September, they should be planted at once, in groups of from 3 to 6 dotted among the taller-growing perennials. They make their leaf-growth in October, then die down and bloom late the following June—stately spikes of large, white, fragrant flowers with yellow anthers.	Doz.	100

Cypripedium Native Orchids or Lady-slippers

Acaule. Broad leaves, with a single stem between them, bearing a large pink flower. One of the loveliest. 3 to 4 crowns. $4 per doz.

Pubescens (Yellow Lady-slipper). Erect, leafy stems bearing several yellow-pouched flowers of great charm, daintily spotted with brown. 3 to 4 crowns. $5 per doz.

Spectabile (The Queen's Orchid). Similar to Pubescens in habit, with larger flowers. Pouch rose-red or white, stained rose. 3 to 4 crowns. $5 per doz.

Chlidanthus

Fragrans. Produces very fragrant, bright yellow, trumpet-shaped flowers on stems 15 inches long. Prefers a sunny situation. $3 per doz.

Dielytra (Dicentra)

Spectabilis (Bleeding-Heart). Not a bulb, but strong roots which produce lovely foliage and long racemes of pink, heart-shaped flowers in May. Especially valuable for shady places and for forcing. $7.50 per doz.

Eremurus

Extremely rare plants of liliaceous habit, throwing up lofty stems bearing tremendous spikes of lily-like flowers. The fleshy, spider-like roots should be planted in a sheltered place, because the new growth is susceptible to damage by late spring frost and ought to be left undisturbed, as they improve with age.

EXTRA-LARGE CLUMPS

CULTURE.—They require a compost of equal parts of loam and leaf-mold and should be potted singly in 6- or 7-inch pots, in October or November. Place in coldframe until required for forcing; water freely when growth begins. Remove to coldframe after flowering and plant out in sunny position in June.

- America. Lilac-rose—a beautiful orchid color with large, feathery flower-spikes and beautiful foliage. This variety is one of the very finest and holds its color well. Medium height Doz. $8 00
- Deutschland. Pure white. Good forcing variety. Strong grower 10 00
- Gladstone. Well-known and best white variety. Flower-spikes are cream-white, large, full, and feathery. Earlier than the pink kinds . . . 10 00
- Gloria Superba. Has attained great popularity because of its brilliant dark pink color. Produces huge panicles of stately blooms borne on long stems 8 00
- Rubens. Attractive deep rose, with red flower-stems 9 00

Spireas can be supplied from cold storage at $11 per case of one dozen extra-selected clumps. Delivery any time, as required

Strawberry Plants

Strawberry plants should be set out in rows 2 feet apart and the plants a foot apart, cutting off all runners as they appear. The varieties we offer are all perfect flowering and therefore need no association with any other variety for perfect fruiting.

Shipping season lasts from August until October. We recommend early planting to enable the plants to get established before the advent of winter.

Uniform prices for all sorts listed below, $1.50 per doz., $8 per 100, all pot-grown

Popular Standard Varieties, Pot-grown

Varieties not listed can be supplied

- Aberdeen. Midseason. Produces immense crops of large, bright red berries.
- Ambrosia. One of the best very late varieties. Vigorous plants produce a tremendous amount of large bright red berries.
- Catskill. Midseason. A heavy yielder of excellent fruit.
- Chesapeake. The berries are uniform in size and shape, mostly heart-shaped. Color is bright crimson and the flesh firm and of excellent quality. Midseason to late.
- Corsican. Midseason. Large in plant, berry, and crop, Corsican is preferred by many experts to New York as a midseason sort.
- Dorsett. Early. Best in flavor, largest in size, most attractive in appearance, heaviest in yield, this introduction of the U. S. Department of Agriculture leaves nothing to be desired. The berries, which are large, firm, and shapely, are produced in amazing quantities on healthy plants.
- Early Jersey Giant. Fruit of extra-high quality, and extremely productive.
- Fairfax. Ripening just after Dorsett, this remarkable berry rules the second-early market as decisively as Dorsett rules the earlier sorts. The solid berries, which ripen evenly to a deep red and hold their firmness and flavor well, are perfect for canning.
- Glen Mary. Midseason. Large berries, deep red in color, with prominent golden seeds. (Plant near some good pollenizer, like Joe, for best results.)

Grand Champion. The giant "all-season" bearer. Its enormous bright red berries are supremely rich in flavor and appear with Premier.

Howard No. 17. One of the best of the second-early varieties.

Joe (Big Joe). A midseason to late variety, fully up to Chesapeake in size.

Lupton. Very much like Gandy but much more productive and about five or six days earlier. We consider this one of the finest of the varieties fruiting late.

Marshall. Vigorous in growth, with clean, healthy foliage. Very productive under high culture. Midseason.

New Washington. Popular late sort. Very prolific, with firm, delicious fruits.

Premier. Excelled by no early variety. Produces vast quantities of berries of good size; attractive, and excellent quality.

Sharpless. A variety that fruits rather late in the season. Produces handsome, large berries of fine quality.

Success. One of the best early varieties. Bright scarlet, slightly oblong berries with blunt end.

William Belt. Another old favorite. Very productive of large, irregular berries, unsurpassed in flavor by any other variety. Midseason to late.

Uniform prices for all above sorts, $1.50 per doz., $3 per 100, all pot-grown

Royal Sovereign. An imported berry. Early to midseason. The genuine plants of this sort are quite scarce. It is mainly used for forcing under glass in the winter, though as a June bearer outdoors it is very successful and satisfactory. Plants, $2.25 per doz., $14 per 100.

Everbearing Strawberries

The Everbearing varieties of Strawberries, frequently termed "Fall-bearing," have decided merit. In addition to bearing a good crop in late summer and autumn, they also give a heavy crop of fruit as early as June. In order to be sure of a good fall crop, remove all blossoms from the plant as they appear from the first to the middle of July.

New Perfection. This is the Strawberry which has taken California by storm. It has produced 18,000 baskets of huge, delicious Strawberries per acre over a bearing period from mid-Spring until very late Fall. Claimed to be the best Everbearing Strawberry ever introduced. $2.50 per doz.; $15 per 100.

Imperial. The vigorous plants are deep-rooted and unaffected by the hot, dry weather of summer. They continue to produce large berries which are firm and of splendid quality. $2 per doz.; $12 per 100.

The Gem. The new Everbearing sensation, producing an abundance of bright, sparkling red berries, uniformly large in size. They are solid red to the center, juicy, deliciously sweet and very free from acid. $2 per doz.; $11 per 100.

Mastodon. It outyields some of the finest June-bearing varieties during their season and continues to produce, throughout the summer and fall, berries of amazing size and surpassingly fine quality. $2 per doz.; $11 per 100.

Progressive. The berries are smooth and uniform in size, deep crimson in color, and of superb quality. $1.75 per doz.; $10 per 100.

Grass Seed Mixtures

Hunt's Perfection Lawn Seed

This mixture is well worthy the name we have bestowed upon it, and we firmly believe it has become the favorite Grass Seed for use where a fine lawn is of importance. Those who have tried out this seed tell us that "we have got the real goods for a perfect lawn." Sow 1 pound to each 150 square feet, 175 pounds to the acre. Lb. 75 cts.; 20 lbs. $13.50; 100 lbs. $65.

Hunt's Perfection Lawn Seed contains 10 per cent South German Mixed Bent

Hunt's Popular Lawn Grass Mixture

We are frequently called upon to supply a good Lawn Grass Mixture, lower in price than our Perfection and Prospect Park Mixtures, and one that will provide a very satisfactory lawn the first season. It is to meet this demand that we have blended our Popular Lawn Grass Mixture, which is especially prepared for sunny locations. Lb. 50 cts.; 20 lbs. $8.50; 100 lbs. $40.

Hunt's Prospect Park Lawn Seed

With proper care of the soil before sowing it will produce a rich, velvety lawn in six to eight weeks, which will remain green throughout the year. For making new lawns we recommend 8 bushels to the acre; 1 pound of seed will sow 150 square feet; for renovating use one-half this quantity. Lb. 65 cts.; 20 lbs. $11.50; 100 lbs. $52.

MIXTURE FOR SHADY LAWNS AND UNDER TREES. It quickly produces an abundant and even growth of lovely green grass where ordinary lawn seed mixtures fail. Lb. 70 cts.; 20 lbs. (bus.) $12.50; 100 lbs. $60.

LAWN RESTORING MIXTURE. A mixture of fine grasses specially suited for renovating old lawns. Will produce a rich and lasting turf. Sow at the rate of 3 pounds per 100 square feet. 20 lbs. $11; 100 lbs. $50.

SEASHORE MIXTURE. This mixture is peculiarly suited to seaside lawns, etc. 20 lbs. $12.50; 100 lbs. $60.

Hunt's Lawn Dressing Seed

Our Lawn Dressing Seed is a scientific blending of the Finest Lawn Seeds with those fertilizing elements that give nourishment to the rootlets, thus insuring perfect growth, fine texture, and deep, rich coloring.
